SUNFLOWER SYSTEMS ANNOUNCES NASASP CORPORATE ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

ARLINGTON, VA – Sunflower Systems®, the leader in asset management software and solutions, is pleased to announce a partnership with the National Association of State Agencies for Surplus Property Inc. (NASASP) as a Corporate Associate Member. Sunflower Systems envisions utilizing its extensive experience in facilitating the screening and disposition of government property to assist NASASP in fulfilling its "Pro Bono Publico" mission ("for the public good for the welfare of the whole").

“We have been serving the property needs of Federal government agencies since 1997 and are eager to translate our experience with screening and disposition to best serve the NASASP donee organizations,” stated Naeem Raza, President and CEO of Sunflower, “Our active involvement with NASASP will ensure Sunflower Systems is contributing to the responsible reutilization of property -- a move that will benefit tax payers and the environment.”

Members of NASASP, Inc. are the State Agencies for Surplus Property (SASPs) of the 50 States, U.S. Territories, and the District of Columbia. NASASP represents 67,000 donee organizations including villages, towns and townships, counties, 8(a) businesses, public educational institutions, public health agencies, public safety (police and fire), libraries, not-for-profit organizations including private schools, veteran's homes, senior centers, homeless shelters, food banks, and other eligible recipients as determined by Federal law. NASASP Agencies ensure fair and equitable distribution of Federal surplus property. All recipients of the donated property are held accountable under Federal and State statutes. NASASP networks across the country and the world with its donee organizations to serve the neediest of America's organizations.

“Sunflower Systems’ partnership and active involvement with NASASP will result in further alignment between the needs of our donee organizations and the federal agencies Sunflower serves,” noted Scott Pepperman, NASASP’s Executive Director. “We are excited and pleased Sunflower has agreed to take on an active role within our association.”
